

XER'S NEWSLETTER

People and places

Earlier this year several members of the first year through Whitebridge banded together to visit one of their favourite teachers, Peter Imberger, currently living at Kirra on the Gold Coast. Since moving into a nursing home Peter has hosted a steady stream of ex-students not only from Whitebridge but also from other schools where he is remembered with fondness for his example and dedication.

School news

Anyone wishing to gain insight into the achievements of students at WHS should regularly visit the school's website at <http://www.whitebridg-h.schools.nsw.edu.au/bridge.htm>. News can be viewed in the current edition of 'The Bridge' under the 'Parent/Community' link.

Visitors to the site will note that the school gains much from interacting with organizations in the community. Perhaps you belong to a group that can benefit the students. Maybe you can suggest ways in which the Xers can contribute to the school's goals and education objectives. If so, please let us know.

Reunions and forthcoming events

45th Anniversary

Whitebridge High School started in 1963. Students faced daily trips to Cardiff High until the first building was ready for occupation.

Many students have passed through the school gates since then. While many have settled in the local region, others have wandered far and wide.

In 2008 we would like to bring back as many students as possible to visit the school again, to join in their graduating year's reunion and to attend a School dinner.

Meantime let's see how far ex-students have wandered. Any news on who has traveled the farthest, been in the remotest place or settled in the strangest?
